Revival or Removal?

"Will you work with me? If not, I think God will move me."

A couple months ago I began telling Tinot that because the Ningerum people were not working with me anymore and they didn't seem interested in learning about God, He might move us out of this tribe. Tinot quickly called a meeting of all Ningerum church leaders and on August 2nd they came. After talking for more than an hour they answered me, "Yes, we want you to stay and we will work with you."

They then continued talking for several hours about what they could do and how they would do it. They have decided to travel around the tribe looking for students and they asked for the next time I could do an in-service. The in-service is set for November 10-14 and when rainy season ends they plan to start their student search.

Pray hard that they will follow through on their commitments. God wants the Christians in this tribe to grow but they must be willing to hear and obey His words. If they are not willing then I am almost certain that God will move us.

We must work together to do God's will.

Fi-bro-my-what?!

What Michelle wanted more than anything else was a firm diagnosis for her back problems. Just when we were planning to send her to a doctor in Australia or the States, a doctor with special experience in this area came to PNG. He examined Michelle and we now have the reason for her pain: fibromyalgia.

Pray for Michelle as she learns to deal with this chronic pain condition. It means that she can't do as much as she'd like and that's a big adjustment for the whole family.

Prayer Briefs:

Garden Growth

Early this year gardens were planted to provide food for the Bible school but they are not growing very well. Pray that they will begin to bear as Jimbo is constantly battling hunger.

Back-To-School

Michelle has now started a new year of studies with the children. Pray for Michelle especially as pain affects many things including patience, something she needs in copious quantities.

Gotta Do It Again!

Vacation was so good last year we thought we'd have another one this year. It's all set for next month. Pray that we will be rested for another year of service.
