Behold, I send My Messenger, And he will prepare the way before Me.

Malachi 3:1

Make Disciples!

There are two commands given in Matthew 20:18. The first is to make disciples – that's evangelism. The second is to teach – that's establishing the church. PNG has historically been lacking in the second command and as a result many have tried to combine following Christ and following the spirits. My job is to teach future church leaders so that they may in turn teach others to follow Christ exclusively. This is church planting!

It's Time to Pray!

Prayer is how God gets His work done and He has certainly been at work this past year! Through prayer God has provided the finances and endurance needed to finish my degree and it will be through prayer that God gets us back to Papua New Guinea. But, we need your help; we need you to pray.

We are asking God to give us 300 prayer partners this year. We ended up with 293 last year so we need every current prayer partner to sign up again plus several more! Would you consider joining us? If so, just fill out the enclosed Prayer Commitment card and return the green top copy to us in the envelope provided. Through your prayers God will get us back home where we belong.

Double Duty

God made it clear back in April of 2004 that He wants us back in Papua New Guinea and He wants me teaching at Christian Leaders Training College (CLTC). What has changed is the urgency of our return. Currently CLTC is short on teachers and that is causing the ones there to take on additional classes. Some of them

I long to walk on the ground they walk, to shake their hands and teach them to understand His Word.

are having to teach almost double the number of classes that is normal. Additionally, each teacher is usually a mentor of 10-12 students. That's about all that one person can take in order to give each student the attention needed. Right now they are not getting that. The next term begins in July of this year. Pray that God will get us

How Much?!

I did some quick figuring the other day. Did you know that King David voluntarily collected over $100 billion worth of supplies for Solomon to build the temple? We only need to raise $7,000 for our plane tickets and $1,400 in monthly support but both require the same thing: sacrificial giving. If you would like to give then simply fill out the enclosed card and send it along with a check to Pioneers (you may use the enclosed envelope and we will forward the gift), or you can give online at www.Pioneers.org. Either way, God will use your gift to establish His church in PNG.
