The Issue is Why!

"They say you must be clean-shaven, and wear a white shirt and black trousers. What will I say to them?" As we were finishing laying the groundwork to the book of Galatians and discussing the issue of adding something—anything—to the gospel, a student asked this question. I said to ask them, "Why?" If they say it is something you must do to be a Christian, they are false teachers. If they say it is something you must do to be a good Christian, they are legalists. If they say it is a way to get God to do something for them, they are animists. And, if they say it is something they do to make God happy with them, they are believing another gospel. However, if they say they do it just because they love God, that's the right answer!

It seems like every church out there, even the "good" ones, are adding something to the gospel.

What they learn from this study of Galatians will transform their lives and their ministry!

You can't drink, you can't smoke, you must belong to our church, you must speak in tongues. Even, you must wear a white shirt and black trousers (shoes are optional)!

These students will graduate in November and return to their churches; almost every one will have to battle this issue. The only way they can win is through God's strength and sound teaching!

Books and Copiers

The CLTC library is one of the premier theological research libraries in the country with 26,747 titles. If you are a librarian this is probably uproariously funny as some pastors have larger collections! Michelle is solely tasked to expand this holding. She literally searches the world for books and many books are cheapest if ordered from the US and sent here airmail!

Aside from teaching, I get to look after the copiers here, and at about 75,000 copies a month that can be a daunting task. Right now only one of our three business machines is operational, but I'm working on it!

The tasks we perform vary widely but each one is crucial to training those who will lead the churches of the South Pacific!

PRAYER BRIEFS

- Praise God for all who continue to support the work God is doing here, even during difficult times!
- Praise God for the privilege of pouring myself into the lives of future church leaders! I love it!
- Pray for us as we plan our first family vacation in years! We need inexpensive travel and accommodations.
- Pray that God would guide us and Daniel to the college He would have Daniel attend. That can be difficult when you are half a world away!
