Behold, I send
My Messenger,

Home For Christmas

On November 5th Michelle's father finally won - death was defeated as he entered eternal life. Our Christmas this year will be spent with family and friends celebrating the glorious birth of our Savior. His Christmas will be spent in the very presence of God! One day we will see him again when we all are truly Home for Christmas.

Teaching For The Teacher

Ever since I began teaching Bible school back in 1999 I've wanted to continue my own education. The more I taught the more I studied, and the more I studied the stronger that desire became. Now's my chance!

A teacher must always be learning so in order to be a better tool in His hand I will once again be attending school.

But it's a big step, both mentally and financially. Although I have done a lot of study it has not been in a formal classroom setting. I left that 16 years ago.

Also, when I studied in

PNG I didn't have to pay for books or tuition. Tuition and fees will be right at $1,500 for the spring semester. Fuel to drive there and back will be about $250 and I expect books to be around $250 as well. Although I hope to qualify for some financial aid the bulk of these funds will come from Individuals and churches. Would you please consider what part

God might have for you in this? If you would like to give just send a check to Pioneers and attach a note with our names on it. Also, let them know it's for educational expenses. Thanks so much!

As Christmas approaches so does the beginning of the school year. Seminary classes begin on January 13th.

"How much more, O Lord?"

"Hearing loss in the severe to profound range with little hope of recovery." It started with a simple staph infection on Michelle's outer ear but it moved all the way to her inner ear. Now for all practical purposes Michelle is deaf in her left ear.

We know that God will not give us more than we can handle but add this to her vision and fibromyalgia and it's getting pretty hard. Please pray for us.

Prayer Briefs:

Kids Adjusting Well

All three of them actually enjoy school and they are doing well both socially and academically. Thanks so much for praying!

Cost of Living

It is so much more expensive to live here in the States. Pray as we try to make ends meet especially while I'm in school.

Nine Students... Maybe

I got a short letter from Beot, the man who taught Bible school while we were here in 2001. He said nine Ningerum people have expressed interest in Bible school. Pray that each person would follow God's leading.
