Support & Expenses

God has provided over $1,500 in monthly support over the last year and a half! We are now just $61 a month short of full support. We also lack just $1,350 in one-time gifts to have all of our departure expenses. If you'd like to help, contact Pioneers or go to our web site. Thanks so much!

Work Permit Approved!

We came home on Memorial Day and Michelle checked her email: a friend at CLTC said she heard my work permit was approved! A glimmer of hope! I checked my email—that's where official word would come through. Nothing. The glimmer faded. I wrote to see what the latest was. Still nothing. It faded some more. Then the glimmer exploded into a brilliant light... the work permit was indeed approved!!

Now we wait for the visas. Originally I thought they would come through quickly. Nope. That paperwork is now at the immigration office in PNG for processing. The timeframe for visa approval has been wildly unpredictable lately. Nobody will even guess. However, being recklessly unafraid of sticking my foot in my mouth, I'd say a couple weeks to a couple months.

One thing we do know: God has been, and will remain, in control. Just as my work permit came in His time, so, too, will the visas.

As soon as our passports have the visas stamped inside we can order our plane tickets!

Prayer Briefs:

For Sale:

One 1999 Buick Century. Lots of miles, er...time tested! Pray that we'll be able to sell our car.

Fares Fly

As fuel prices rise so do ticket prices. Pray we'll be able to book passage with the money God has provided.

Time to Move

Once we get there we'll need to move our stuff from Ok Ao to CLTC by plane. With me teaching that won't be easy. Pray that God will make a way.

Packing Heat

It's hot here in Texas and we're packing to leave. Pray for wisdom in what to pack and the strength to pack it.

Classes Begin in July

Both Daniel and I are scheduled to begin classes the third week of July: Daniel as a student and me as a teacher. We both have full schedules as well. Daniel will be taking seven classes, and I'll be teaching three. First hour I teach Exodus. That is going to be fun! I love teaching stories and what they mean. Then I get a break before a class on Romans. Oh, yeah! "The Gospel According to Paul." Also, two days a week, I teach Computer Training. Very basic but that way they can type papers.

The catch is that Daniel has to be there to learn and I have to be there to teach! Once again, it's out of our hands but it is in His!
